**Alexandria: The Last Night of Cleopatra** is a gripping historical novel of love, betrayal, and power. Set against the backdrop of Cleopatra's opulent court, the novel tells the story of her forbidden romance with Mark Antony, her struggle for power, and her ultimate downfall.

Cleopatra was the last pharaoh of Egypt, a woman of legendary beauty and intellect. She was also a skilled politician and military strategist. But her reign was marked by turmoil and violence, and she ultimately lost her kingdom and her life to the Roman Empire.

Alexandria: The Last Night of Cleopatra tells the story of Cleopatra's final days. The novel is based on historical events, but it also explores the inner lives of the characters involved. We see Cleopatra as a complex and flawed woman, capable of great love and ambition. We also see Mark Antony as a man torn between his duty to Rome and his love for Cleopatra.

The novel is a thrilling and immersive read. It is a story of love, betrayal, and power that will stay with you long after you finish it.
