Prepare for Adventure with Viking Ships at Sunrise

As the sun rises, casting a golden glow over the vast ocean, Jack and Annie find themselves stranded on a desolate shore. With only their trusty field guide and a keen sense of curiosity, they venture into the unknown, encountering towering Viking ships and fierce Norse warriors.

Along the way, they encounter Erik the Red, a legendary explorer known for his daring voyages to the New World. Under his guidance, Jack and Annie learn about Viking navigation, shipbuilding, and the harsh realities of life in the unforgiving seas.

Discover the Secrets of the Vikings

Viking Ships at Sunrise not only captivates with its gripping adventure but also immerses readers in the rich history and culture of the Vikings. Jack and Annie witness firsthand the Vikings' skilled craftsmanship, their intricate carvings, and their awe-inspiring raids.

Osborne weaves historical facts and Norse mythology into the story, bringing the Viking Age to life for young readers. They witness the Vikings' reverence for their gods, their beliefs in fate and destiny, and the complex social structure that governed their society.

Experience the Magic of Time Travel

The Magic Tree House series has long enchanted children with its blend of adventure and education. In Viking Ships at Sunrise, Mary Pope Osborne continues this tradition, transporting readers back in time to an era of exploration and discovery.

Through Jack and Annie's eyes, children embark on their own adventure, experiencing the challenges and triumphs of the Viking Age. They learn about the power of resilience, the importance of knowledge, and the enduring legacy of the Vikings.

Stunning Illustrations Enhance the Experience

Complementing the captivating narrative are the breathtaking illustrations by Sal Murdocca. Each page is adorned with vibrant colors, intricate details, and lifelike characters that bring the Viking Age to life.

Through these stunning visuals, readers can feel the cold wind on their faces, hear the thunder of the waves, and smell the salty air of the open sea. Murdocca's masterful artwork enhances the storytelling experience, immersing readers in the beauty and wonder of the Viking world.
