Day 1: Immerse Yourself in the French Quarter

Your New Orleans adventure begins in the heart of the French Quarter, where historic streets are adorned with charming buildings and vibrant balconies. Stroll down Royal Street, browsing unique boutiques and art galleries, until you reach Jackson Square, an iconic landmark framed by the majestic St. Louis Cathedral. Here, soak up the atmosphere as street musicians fill the air with soulful melodies.

Indulge in a delectable lunch at Brennan's, a legendary restaurant serving up classic Creole dishes in an elegant setting. Then, embark on a guided tour of the historic St. Louis Cemetery, where above-ground tombs and intricate sculptures tell tales of the city's past.

As evening falls, immerse yourself in the vibrant nightlife of Frenchmen Street. Catch a live jazz performance at The Spotted Cat, a renowned music venue that has hosted countless legends.

Day 2: Explore the Garden District and Uptown

On your second day, delve into the elegance of the Garden District, known for its stately mansions and lush gardens. Admire the grand architecture of Lafayette Cemetery, where above-ground tombs are adorned with intricate carvings. Take a leisurely stroll through Audubon Park, a verdant oasis where locals and visitors alike enjoy picnics, jogging, and birdwatching.

For lunch, head to Commander's Palace, a culinary institution renowned for its innovative Creole cuisine. Afterward, immerse yourself in the vibrant art scene at the Ogden Museum of Southern Art, where you'll find a diverse collection of works by Southern artists.

In the evening, indulge in a memorable dinner at Galatoire's, an iconic restaurant that has been serving up classic French-Creole dishes since 1905.

Day 3: Discover Voodoo, Music, and the Mississippi River

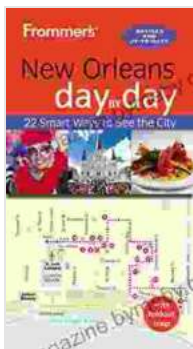

On your third day, delve into the city's mystical side at the New Orleans Historic Voodoo Museum, where you'll learn about the fascinating history of voodoo and its influence on New Orleans culture. Then, experience the city's vibrant musical heritage at the Preservation Hall, a renowned venue where traditional jazz music fills the air.

For lunch, indulge in the authentic flavors of New Orleans at Mother's Restaurant, known for its hearty portions and traditional Cajun dishes. Afterward, stroll along the picturesque Mississippi Riverfront, admiring the city skyline and watching the boats pass by.

In the evening, enjoy a farewell dinner at Dooky Chase's Restaurant, a local institution that has been serving up classic Creole cuisine for generations.

With Frommer's New Orleans Day by Day as your guide, you'll experience the very best that this captivating city has to offer. From iconic landmarks to hidden gems, delectable dining options to lively entertainment, New Orleans will leave an unforgettable mark on your soul.
