A heartwarming and hilarious collection of true stories about the misadventures of a family who adopted a menagerie of animals.

From a runty kitten named Squeaky to a retired racing greyhound named Zoom, from a three-legged dog named Tripod to a blind horse named Lucky, the Bachman family has opened their home and hearts to a wide variety of animals who have all taught them valuable lessons about love, compassion, and the importance of giving every creature a second chance.

In Misadventures With Runts, Rejects, Retirees, and Rescues, author Jennifer Bachman shares the heartwarming and hilarious stories of her family's misadventures with their adopted animals. Whether they're trying to teach a blind horse how to jump or helping a three-legged dog overcome his fear of water, the Bachmans' adventures are always full of laughter, love, and lessons learned.

Misadventures With Runts, Rejects, Retirees, and Rescues is a must-read for anyone who loves animals, laughter, and heartwarming stories.
