A Glimmer of Salvation: Schindler's List

In 1943, a glimmer of salvation appeared in the form of Oskar Schindler, a German industrialist who risked his own safety to employ Jewish workers in his factories. ## Factory Life and the Fight for Survival

Life in Schindler's factories was a constant struggle for survival. The relentless work, meager rations, and ever-present threat of deportation cast a shadow over their daily existence. Yet, amidst the darkness, Rachel found strength in the friendships she formed with other young workers. Together, they shared dreams, laughter, and stories of their pre-war lives, providing a flicker of hope in the face of unimaginable horrors.
